Books UK

Five years after Studio Press made its debut on the publishing scene, we are proud to present a list that fuses global trends with contemporary issues and commercial brands to produce original books for both children and adults.

Summer kicks off with the publication of our fun, fact-filled Euros Quiz Book (page 4). It's a great introduction to the Ultimate Football Heroes, our thrilling, million-selling collection of football fiction that is perfect for reluctant readers.

In June, we add a deliciously evil title to our Disney portfolio. Disney Villains: The Wicked Collection (page 11) is a uniquely illustrated guide to the characters you love to hate, or simply love! It's perfect for adults who aren't afraid to explore the dark side.

As people flock to the Olympics in July, we launch Champions (pages 8–9) a series that traces the path to success taken by four record-breaking sporting heroes, all going for gold in 2020.

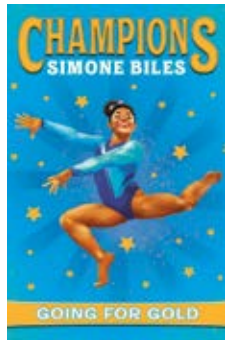

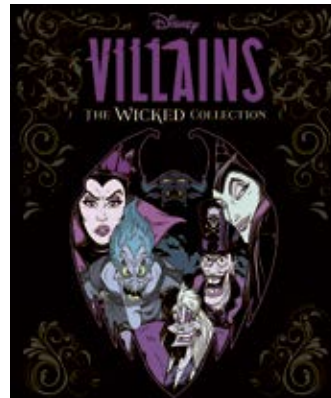

Our adventures in social media continue with the truly uplifting The Happy Broadcast (page 18) brainchild of illustrator Mauro Gatti. Packed with stories of positive change, it encourages action and involvement to make the world a better place.

As mental health rises to the top of everyone's agenda, Mindful Kids (pages 27 and 41) remains one of our proudest achievements. This year the series will grow to 10 titles, with more to follow in 2021.

Our commitment to publishing bravely continues with a groundbreaking collection of prose poems from the talented team behind the podcast, Bedtime Stories for the End of the World (page 38), featuring the luminous illustration of Amandeep Singh. His beautiful work also graces the cover of our catalogue.

We hope you enjoy our books as much as we enjoyed making them.

Lacazette (Ultimate Football Heroes)

Written by Matt and Tom Oldfield

Follow the thrilling story of Lacazette, the amazing Arsenal striker.

Alexandre Lacazette has shown just what hard work and perseverance can do. He might not be the flashiest player on the pitch, but he's a firm favourite with the fans for his goals and his strike partnership with Aubameyang that helped Arsenal reach the Europa League final in 2019. The superstar striker grew up in Lyon but he's now one of the most important players in the Arsenal squad.

Matt and Tom Oldfield's Ultimate Football Heroes series has sold almost 1 million copies across the UK. Matt also works with charities and organisations such as The National Literary Trust, The National Football Museum and Football Beyond Borders to deliver literacy workshops for football fans and reluctant readers.

Follow the inspiring journeys of four of the most exciting sportspeople of our time – just in time for the Tokyo 2020 Olympics!

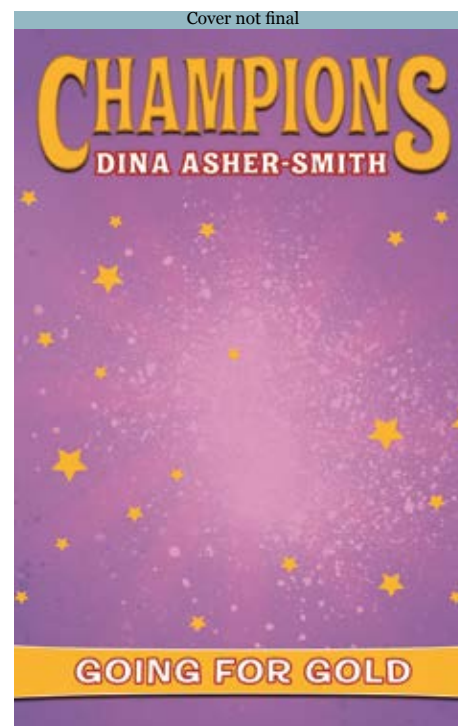

The year 2020 is an exciting time for pending sporting success, with the Olympics just around the corner. In this thrilling series, readers can follow the journeys of four record-breaking sports stars: Simone Biles, Dina Asher-Smith, Katarina Johnson-Thompson and Tom Daley. Written in an accessible manner to appeal to the most reluctant of readers, these will be the perfect books for kids aged 9 to 11 who want to learn more about their favourite sporting heroes.

Charlotte Browne (author of Simone Biles and Dina Asher-Smith) has worked as a journalist for publications including The Independent and Prima. She is also the author of four books in the Studio Press Ultimate Football Heroes series – biographical stories of professional female footballers. In her free time, she loves playing her favourite songs on piano.

Melanie Hamm (author of Tom Daley and Katarina Johnson-Thompson) is a writer and editor of fiction, non-fiction and picture books for children. Originally from Ipswich, she now lives in south London. She is passionate about art, environmental issues and children's literacy.

Alisson (Ultimate Football Heroes)

Written by Matt and Tom Oldfield

Follow the story of Alisson Becker, the amazing Brazilian goalkeeper for Liverpool FC.

Alisson Becker earned his dream move to Liverpool FC in the summer of 2018. His record fee of £66.8 million made him the most expensive goalkeeper of all time. This is the story of the little boy from Novo Hamburgo with a big dream that took him all the way to the bright lights of Anfield. Written in fast-paced, action-packed style, these books are perfect for all the family to collect and share.

Matt and Tom Oldfield's Ultimate Football Heroes series has sold 1 million copies across the UK. Matt works with charities and organisations such as The National Literary Trust, The National Football Museum and Football Beyond Borders to deliver literacy workshops for football fans and reluctant readers.

Choose You!

Written by Dr. Sharie Coombes

This interactive non-fiction book guides teens on how to be the person THEY CHOOSE to be, not just the person that circumstance created.

In this book, Dr. Sharie Coombes breaks down the belief that we are shaped by external circumstances and shows how each of us can rebuild ourselves into the person we want to be. Written with the teenager in mind, and with interactive exercises throughout, Choose You! brings together ideas from psychology, science and philosophy to give practical advice on how to obtain personal happiness.

Dr Sharie Coombes, Ed.D, MA, SQHP, B.Ed, is a child, adolescent and family psychotherapist who loves to use neuroscience to help people understand themselves. She has worked with young people and families in schools and in the NHS. She is now part of the British Red Cross psychosocial team.

Is bad news getting you down? The Happy Broadcast is an uplifting book packed full of positive news stories from all over the world.

Based on a popular Instagram feed, The Happy Broadcast is full of stories of people, companies and governments that are making the world a better place every day. Stories range from scientific developments that help the environment to random acts of kindness. As well as providing an antidote to anxiety-inducing news, this book will inspire readers to create good news of their very own. With brightly coloured pages throughout, this book is a rainbow shining through the rain.

Mauro Gatti created The Happy Broadcast Instagram feed in 2018 after feeling overwhelmed by bad news. It made him anxious, disillusioned and uninspired. Since its creation, his promotion of 'anxiety-free news' has reached more than 300,000 followers.

An interactive 'Adulting' manual – for those moments when being an adult is all a bit too much.

You know those things you're supposed to know how to do as an adult, but you just don't yet? Ever been in a situation where you're looking for the adult in the room, then you realise it's YOU? There is adulting, and then there is adulting for the messy mind. Sometimes you just need extra maps and a GPS. This is a manual for the adults that sometimes need a little extra help.

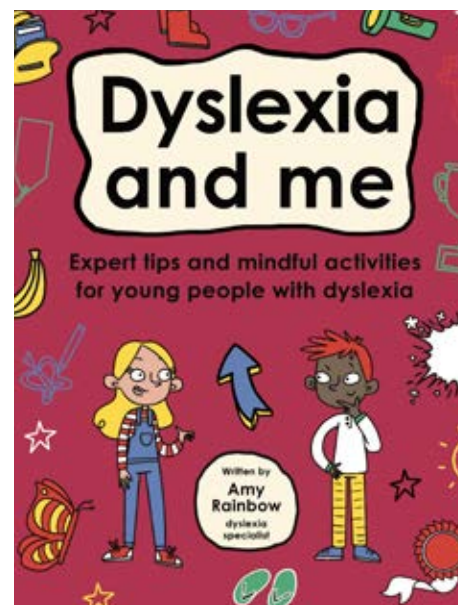

From small talk top tips to use next time you're at the hairdressers, to advice on how to ask for help, this interactive journal offers a safe place for people to explore their mental health and express themselves.

Milly Smith is a mental health and body acceptance advocate and public speaker. Milly uses her Instagram account @millykeepsgoing to send positive messages to her 172,000 strong following.

Katie Abey is a yellow-haired illustrator human who lives in a teeny hobbit-like house in Derbyshire. She lives with a cat, a hedgehog, a husband and the world's smiliest baby. Her work provides doses of happiness and motivation with a little dash of sarcasm.

A bright, accessible and fun activity book for children with dyslexia.

This book explores what it means to be dyslexic. It is full of fun exercises, including colouring and drawing, all of which are designed for dyslexic people and their friends and family to enjoy. Some ideas might be useful to practise outside of the book in real-life, everyday situations. There is also guidance for parents and caregivers.

Amy Rainbow is a qualified teacher with lots of experience of working with dyslexic people and their families and caregivers. Amy is an Associate of the Dyslexia Guild.

Ellie O'Shea, also known as Binny Boo, is a children's illustrator living near Birmingham. Her favourite things involve drawing, coffee, snowboarding and cuddles with her French Bulldog puppy, Yoshi. Her love of drawing came from watching cartoons and doodling with her mum from a very young age. When Ellie isn't drawing she's usually out on puppy walks, globe-trotting or just cuddling up watching a movie.

Extent: 32pp

It's almost Christmas Eve and the rockets on Mr Claus' sleigh have exploded! With just hours to go, Mr Claus sets out to find a creature that can help him deliver Christmas gifts across the world.

The polar bears are strong, but they're too sleepy. The narwhals are fast, but the presents get too wet. The reindeer might just be the perfect creature to help... especially when Mr Claus discovers that the females have a secret... they can fly!

Raj Kaur Khaira is a lawyer, an activist and the author of Stories for South Asian Supergirls, which published in May 2019. Her lifelong passion for gender equality led to her founding the Pink Ladoo Project in 2015. This encourages South Asian families to abandon sexist customs and celebrate the birth of girls as well as boys. The campaign has attracted tens of thousands of followers in South Asian communities across the world.
