

A Murder of Crows

Book Club Questions

1. How did the book's title relate to the story?
2. The author, Sarah Yarwood-Lovett, is an ecologist. Could you tell her background informed the story?
3. Did you learn anything about ecology that surprised you in the story?
4. As the case and evidence builds up against Nell, was there a point that you thought she could have been guilty?
5. Who was your favourite side character and why?
6. James and Nell clearly had an attraction to each other from the beginning of the book. Did you enjoy the romantic subplot between them?
7. If you were making a movie adaptation of the book, who would you cast?
8. Did you like the British location of the story?
9. Who did you think the murderer was? Were you surprised when the culprit was revealed?
10. If you were making a movie adaptation of the book, who would you cast?